- (2) If the work or conduct of a member of the Service during the period of probation has been unsatisfactory, the High Court may, notwithstanding that the period of probation has not expired dispense with his service.
- (3) On completion of the period of probation of a member of the Service, the High Court may, subject to the provision of sub-rule (4) confirm him in his appointment, or if his work or conduct has, in the opinion of the High Court not been satisfactory - -
- (a) dispense with his services; or

- (b) extend the period of the probation by a period not exceeding two years in all, and during or on the expiry of such period pass such orders as it could have passed during or on the expiry of the initial probationary period.

Explanation- I:- If no orders have been made by the day following the completion of the initial probationary period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

Explanation- II:- If no orders have been made by the day on which the maximum period of probation expires, the probationer shall be deemed to have been confirmed in his appointment from the date on which the period of probation was last extended or may be deemed to have been so extended.

- (4) No person shall be confirmed in the service unless he successfully completes such training and passes such departmental examinations as may be prescribed by the High Court from time to time.
- (5) If a member of the Service fails to complete successfully any training or pass any departmental examinations prescribed under sub-rule (4), within such period or in such number of attempts as may be prescribed by the High Court, the High Court may dispense with his services.

10. Seniority:-

The seniority inter se of the members of the service in the various grades thereof shall be determined - -

- (a) in the case of members appointed by initial appointment in accordance with the order of merit assigned by the High Court; provided that persons selected for the Service in an earlier selection shall rank senior to the persons selected in a later selection;
- (b) in the case of members appointed by promotion, with reference to the dates of their continuous appointments therein; provided that if the date of continuous appointments in the case of two or more members is the same, the elder officer, if not junior to the younger officer or officers in the next below grade, shall rank senior to the younger officer or officers.
- (c) In the case of Executive Magistrates on their transfer to the service, from the date of their entry into the service, provided that their inter-se seniority will be with reference to the dates of their continuous appointment in their original cadre.

Explanation I:- If a junior officer in a lower grade is promoted temporarily in the public interest, even though continuing later permanently in the higher grade, it would not adversely affect the interest of his senior officer in the fixation of his seniority in the higher grade.

Explanation II:- If a junior officer in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade by superseding a senior officer and subsequently that officer is also promoted, the officer promoted first shall rank senior to the officer promoted subsequently.

11. Liability to transfer and serve:-

Members of the service shall be liable to

- (a) transfer anywhere in Sindh;
- (b) serve in any department of Government or any local authority or statutory body set up or established by Government; and
- (c) serve anywhere in Pakistan under the Federal Government.

12. General rules:-

In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, member of the Service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may hereafter be prescribed by Government and made applicable to them.

13. Relaxation:-

Any of these rules may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, be relaxed in individual cases, if Government, on the recommendation of the High Court, is satisfied that a strict application of the rules would cause undue hardship to the individual concerned.

14. Delegation:-

Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, delegate all or any of its powers under these rules to any officer.

15. Repeal:-

The West Pakistan Civil Service (Judicial Branch) Rules, 1962 are hereby repealed.
